

2021 MI Potato LIVE

Various Dates: January 14th - March 4th, 2021

Schedule at a Glance

MI Potato LIVE (Living in Virtual Education) is an 8-week digital program consisting of half-hour or one-hour-long live webinar sessions covering a multitude of topics that matter to you! Beginning Thursday, January 14, 2021, the goal of MI Potato LIVE is to offer one of a kind educational opportunity for growers and industry professionals from the comfort of their own home.

Register Today!

Developments in Potato Variety Commercialization and Licensing

Thursday, January 14th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Preparing your Finances as Potato Growers

Tuesday, January 19th

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Potato Storage Fundamentals: Avoiding Accidents

Thursday, January 21st

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Michigan's Investigation and Response to PFAS

Tuesday, January 26th

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Enviroweather's New Website and Tools for Potato Growers

Thursday January 28th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

How Do Warmer Than Average Temperatures Affect Colorado Potato Beetles?

Tuesday, February 2nd

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Understanding the Different Growth Stages of a Potato Crop to Help Growers to Make Sound Decisions on Crop Inputs

Thursday, February 4th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Tolfenpyrad: New Chemistry for Colorado Potato Beetle Control

Tuesday, February 9th

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Why are we in business? Achieve Success and Maximize Return on Assets

Thursday, February 11th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Integrated Management of Potato Early Die

Tuesday, February 16th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Getting in The Weeds About Weed Control in Potatoes

Thursday, February 18th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

White Mold Management in Potato

Tuesday, February 23rd

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Potato Virus Y: National Directions for Diagnostics and Management

Thursday, February 25th

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Agroclimatic Trends in Michigan and the Great Lakes Region

Tuesday, March 2nd

3:00pm - 4:00pm

Expansion on Potato EXPO 2021 Succession Planning topics

Thursday, March 4th

3:00pm - 4:00pm